Brand and Partnerships

A single or ongoing strategic campaign intended to position, reposition or create positive brand / partner alignment with a centre or group of centres amongst its target market. Its primary purpose is to drive positive perceptions, engagement and attitudes towards the centre(s) at either a strategic level or a tactical level. The campaign may be connected to a number of strategic partnerships to leverage an opportunity to drive positive results. Campaigns may relate to branding, sponsorship partnerships, and or development / redevelopment campaigns that use the brand to position or reposition the centre(s). Please see template for suggested success measures for a brand and partnerships campaign.

- Objectives & Strategy (budget, key customer insights & the business opportunity) – 20%
- Execution (creativity, customer touch points, presentation in-centre, experience) – 40%
- Results & Outcomes (success measures, retailer feedback Data, customer feedback data, key learnings) – 40%
